

I oppose this new regulation allowing further concentration of ownership of media. A wide spectrum of voices and opinions -- is vital to a functioning democracy. This regulation will put ownership of media -- and control of opinion -- in the hands of a few corporations. It endangers our democracy. The marketplace of ideas cannot function when there are only a few people controlling it. Please reject this regulation.